

Subject: Important Notice – False Rumor About Meditech Packaging

Dear Valued Customer,

We would like to inform you that there has been a false rumor circulating claiming that Meditech is changing its packaging version.

Please note that this information is not true.

Meditech has not changed and will not change its current official packaging. All genuine Meditech products continue to use the same packaging design as before.

To ensure you are purchasing authentic Meditech products, please always verify the product's authenticity on our official website:

👉 www.meditechpharmaceutical.ch

If you come across any version without an authenticity code or one that cannot be verified on the official website, please avoid purchasing or using it.

We appreciate your attention and ongoing trust in Meditech. Your safety and satisfaction remain our top priority.
